Terms and Conditions

By accepting a ticket you're agreeing to our terms and conditions:

1. As not everyone who asks for tickets uses them we send out more tickets than there are places. This means that admission is on a first come first served basis and is not guaranteed. Also, some audience members do arrive earlier than our ticket times. It is unusual for us to have to refuse entry to ticket holders, but when we do please note that there will be no compensation for any costs incurred in getting to us.
2. You'll need to have your ticket validated when you arrive. There will be occasions when we require all audience members to be present at the time of ticket validation although this is rare and will be indicated at the time of application. If you're not sure what to do when you arrive, speak to one of our Studio Audience team who'll be happy to help you.
3. At some venues you'll need to go through airport styled security checks. Please bring as little as possible with you so we don't keep you waiting and remember that you won't be allowed to take photos or use recording equipment in the studio.
4. If you need help with access please let us know as soon as possible by calling 0370 901 1227. Please be aware smoke effects, strobe lighting, lasers and loud noises may be used in the studio.
5. As part of our studio audience you'll make a major contribution to the show and you may be filmed. It'll be your applause or laughter that you'll hear. To make sure everyone has a great time we'll ask people to leave if they interrupt or disrupt the show or behave in a way likely to cause damage, injury, nuisance or annoyance. The BBC reserves the right to refuse admission.
6. Now and again we have to cancel or change bookings. If this happens, we'll do all we can to give you plenty of notice, but we can't be held responsible for any expenses you have in getting to us.
7. Please check the minimum age limit on your ticket. If you look underage it is important that you bring proof of age with you to ensure you get in.
8. Before you set out we recommend you call our recorded information line on 0370 901 1227 choosing option '1' and then option '1' again, or go to bbc.co.uk/showsandtours to check that your show is going ahead.
